

Kendaia Stained Glass Windows

Circa 1900 featuring a central anchor and rope with Holy Bible atop and lower memorial panel reading "Remember the Sabbath Day to Keep it Holy, Mrs. R. S. Wilcox," transitional style stained glass housed in original painted pine frame with metal bar supports.

Transitional style leaded glass, featuring the 10 commandments with Holy Bible and memorial panel of "Mr. and Mrs. Bainbridge by Rev. and Mrs. L. J. Gross", comprised of slag, clear and stained glass sections, housed in original painted pine frame with metal bar supports.

Circa 1900 featuring a central cross and grapevine with crown atop and lower memorial panel reading "In Memory of William C. Covert," transitional style glass in clear, stained and slag panels primarily in shades of yellow and blue, housed in original painted pine frame with metal bar supports.

Leland Little, 620 Cornerstone Court, Hillsborough, NC 27278, (919)644-1243, info@lelandlittle.com